

Journey Into Reading

Let us read to you.

Then you pick a book to keep.

GREAT HANDOUTS

- Free to Parents
- ~How to read to an Infant
- ~How to read to a Toddler
- ~Tips on reading to children
- ~It's never too early to begin to read to children
- ~Two flyers on how to extend a book
- ~2 new RIF flyers
 - "Become a Reader"
 - "Tips on How Families Can Make A Difference for Their Children"

From May 2002 to August 2006---9,317 free books given to children at the Mall
5,853 parents given how-to hints about reading with children

Volunteers

CVAEYC (Champlain Valley Assoc. for the Education of Young Children)

CVCCC (Champlain Valley Child Care Council)

Even Start

RSVP

Peru Retired Teachers

CEF Library System

Literacy Volunteers of Clinton County

Champlain Valley Reading Council

All donations are used to buy books that are given to children. There are no additional costs. We are a Reading is Fundamental (RIF) site, which means we can purchase books at a reduced rate and have no shipping costs. All parts of the program are run by volunteers.

Tax deductible donations may be sent to Child Care Coordinating Council PO Box 2640, Plattsburgh NY 100% of your donation buys our books.